

Who is affected?

How does this affect police?

Steph doesn't want to be at school. She tells her cousin to report an active shooter at school. The school goes into lockdown, and police rush to campus. Students hide and text their families, who are very scared. Steph and her cousin know it's not real, but they don't tell anyone.

How does this affect school?

What could happen to the person who lied?