By participating in the James Madison Legacy Project Expansion Program, I agree to the following:

- Implement the program with a student population of English language learners (ELLs), students of color (30% or more in each classroom), and/or students with disabilities (50% or more per classroom).
 - A minimum of one class that qualifies is required for participation.
- Attend all scheduled professional development sessions (a minimum of 52 hours of training), including the 36-hour in-person summer institute from June 12-16, 2023, in Mesa, Arizona and eight, 2.5-hour virtual workshops during the 2023-2024 school year.
- Infuse a minimum of 40 hours of program instruction into the regular social studies curriculum in at least one middle or high school class.
- Invite the site coordinator to observe classroom instruction in the We the People curriculum and the Simulated Congressional Hearing.
- Participate in the evaluation aspect of the program by:
 - Taking a proctored pre- and post-test as the instructor.

- Administering proctored pre- and post-tests to classes involved in the program.
- Involve students in the mandated culminating activity known as the Simulated Congressional Hearing.
- Provide anecdotal data from my classes or students.
- Participate in a professional learning community as designed by the site coordinator.

In return, I will receive a free set of textbooks and teacher professional development. I will be paid a stipend of $1,120¹ for participating in and completing all requirements of the James Madison Legacy Project Expansion program.
