KIDS VOTING AZ LEADERSHIP COUNCIL

LOOKING TO ENCOURAGE LEADERSHIP SKILLS
WITHIN YOUR STUDENTS AND PROMOTE CIVIC ENGAGEMENT?

NOMINATE 2 STUDENTS FOR THE KIDS VOTING LEADERSHIP COUNCIL (KVLC).

The KVLC is administered by the Arizona Bar Foundation and is comprised of 6th-11th grade students interested in encouraging youth to go out and vote!! The KVLC members lead the charge in increasing positive ideas of voting and developing ways to encourage youth based civic engagement in Arizona.

As a nominating teacher, you will be the liaison between the Arizona Bar Foundation and your students. Meetings for the 2023-2024 school year will be held at the Arizona Bar Foundation (4201 N. 24th St. Ste. 210, Phoenix, AZ 85016) and offsite at community locations* in Phoenix, AZ. Four out of eight meetings will require in-person attendance while the remaining meetings will be held virtually via Zoom. Teachers are eligible for stipends, mileage, and substitute reimbursements.

*Location subject to change
