

RIGHTS AND Responsibilities

Match the online rights and responsibilities to their meanings.

Right to privacy

You should not experience bullying, harassment, or threats online

Right to express your opinions

Consider how your post could affect you or others now and in the future

Right to be safe

You can say no to unwanted messages, tags or contact

Right to digital boundaries

You can decide who sees your posts, photos, and personal information

Think before posting or sharing

You are allowed to share opinions as long as they do not harm others

Report bullying or harmful behavior

Respect when others say no or want privacy online

Protect personal information

Treat others online the way you want to be treated

Maintain digital boundaries

Speak up and report when you see someone being bullied or threatened

Be kind and respectful

Keep passwords, private messages, and personal details secure