

During class, Liam pulled the fire alarm as a joke. The whole school went outside.

When Ethan dropped his pencil under his desk, he crawled to grab it and bumped into another student's chair.

Mason told the principal that a man with a weapon was outside the school. Police came right away but Mason admitted he made up the story.

Jordan told a classmate, "You better watch out tomorrow." It made the student afraid to come to school.

During recess, Mia and Jordan had a disagreement and continued arguing until recess ended.

Paul said to his friends, "I have something in my backpack," and later showed them a medal.

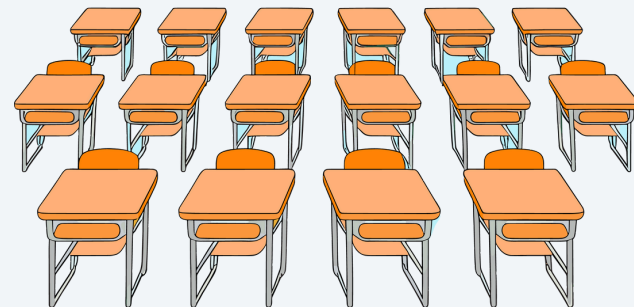

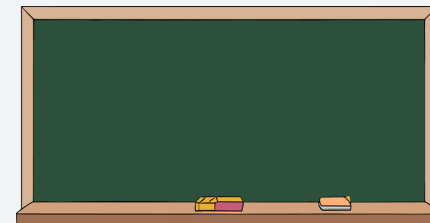

Ruby logged into her classmates account and sent fake threatening messages. The classmate got in trouble until teachers figured out what happened.

During class, Marcus slammed his desk and yelled, "I'm going to hurt everyone!"
All the students left the class.

Sofia got angry when her team lost the basketball game so she sat down on the court.

Zoe told her friends there was a bomb hidden in the cafeteria. Everyone got scared, and police were called.

