

Top 10 Reasons for using We the People...the Citizen and the Constitution as a component of your Civics and Government program.

10. Entire Arizona US Congressional Delegation supports the program.
9. The content is presented in an understandable and interesting manner
8. Teachers feel excited and renewed after teaching We the People.
7. Students become interested in their government.
6. We the People students outperform non We the People students in knowledge and understanding of the Constitution and its philosophical and historical underpinnings.
5. Important Constitutional concepts spiral across the grade levels.
4. Activities enhance critical thinking and problem-solving skills through cooperative learning activities.
3. The simulated hearing is an excellent authentic assessment tool.
2. The materials align closely with the Arizona Civics and US Government standards.

And the number one reason for using We the People...the Citizen and the Constitution as a component of your Civics and Government program...

Free textbooks* are available and training is affordable.

The number of free sets of textbooks is limited and available on a first come, first serve basis.