

Every Vote Counts

There are people who believe that their vote does not matter, but every vote counts. In 2017, a Congressional election in Virginia was decided by 1 vote, proving that voting does make a difference.

Write the word that makes the most sense to complete the sentences below.

1. Luis _____ to vote.
went like

2. Cindy _____ Luis a ballot.
threw gave

3. Luis went into a booth to _____ .
sleep vote

4. They _____ the names on the ballot.
read yelled

5. He marked the _____ he liked.
animal person

6. She put her ballot in the _____ .
mail box

Is everyone in your family registered to vote? _____

If not, tell them to register today! When you get a chance for the next election, visit a polling place with your family.

What would you tell some about the importance of their vote if they believe that their vote does not matter.
