

From Idea to Law

Laws are another word for rules. Schools have rules in place to keep people safe. Our country, states, and cities also have rules to protect people known as laws. Laws are created by the legislative branch, known as Congress. Passing a law can take a long time because it has to be read, changed, and voted on many times.

Complete the maze from start to finish!

Think of a new “law” for your house or community. What do you think you can do to get your bill passed? Write your ideas in the space below.
